Gear Up for Giving: Social Media Tutorials for Nonprofits

Gear Up for Giving: Social Media Tutorials for Nonprofits is a month-long series of trainings designed to help nonprofits understand how to best leverage social media to create awareness for your cause, raise funds, and engage with new constituents. In the introductory video, issues addressed include: how social media affects monitoring and control of your brand; using social media for fund- and friend-raising; and who within your organization should be responsible for social media. After you've watched this video, browse other resources on some of the most popular social media tools and techniques, so you can learn more at your own pace. You can also view live presentations every Thursday at 1pm EST. To access the resource, go to <http://www.casefoundation.org/social-media-tutorials>.

990 Online Resource

In collaboration with the National Association of Attorney's General/National Association of State Charity Officials (NAAG/NASCO) and GuideStar, the National Center for Charitable Statistics NCCS has developed an online system, the 990 Online, for charities to complete all their federal Form 990 and state registration filing requirements and file these forms electronically. E-Filing of IRS Form 990s and state charity forms benefits nonprofit organizations, regulators, researchers, and donors alike. This online service offers an easy-to-use web-based system for completing IRS Form 990s, 990s-EZ or 8868 (application for extension). The system is free for organizations with less than $100,000 in gross receipts and there is a sliding scale for larger organizations. To complete and electronically file your Form 990, 990-EZ, 8868 (extension request) and State Charity Registration Forms go to: <http://efile.form990.org>.

Awards for Local Arts and Education Programs

Barnes & Noble Booksellers offers ongoing fundraising opportunities for local level pre-K-12 schools, not-for-profit arts and literacy organizations. Grant Tips

Avoiding Grants Nightmares - 10 New Year Resolutions to Make Life Easier

Resolution #1 Keep one up-to-date list of all passwords, usernames, and special numbers in a file for access by others if needed.

Resolution #2

Organize your office, your computer, and all your information so that a new person could come in and (almost) pick up where you left off.

Resolution #3

Save, save, save! Save your document on your hard drive and on a flash drive, and also email it to yourself.

Resolution #4

If you do not already have a web-based email address, such as Gmail or Yahoo, establish one. Use it as a repository for important documents. Then, if you must use a different computer, you will be able to download your document and pick up where you left off.

Resolution #5

For a new person in the job, this can be a wonderful opportunity to develop a relationship with the funder. If you cannot find the records and if no one in the organization knows anything, visit the funder. Explain that you are new on the job, became aware of the grant, and as part of your orientation want to find out more both about the funder and about the grant. Use the conversation to learn about the funder's perspective on the grant, and to identify any loose ends. Such a conversation can actually enhance the credibility of both your organization and your work.

Resolution #6

Involve others in planning as grant proposals are developed. Build your team!

Resolution #7

Keep thorough records.

Resolution #8

Always prepare your response for an online grant application in a Word document. Fine tune it. Get feedback from others. Edit it. Count your words. Edit it. Spell-check it. Then check the spelling-for those words that spell-check missed! Edit it. Finally, when you have polished your document to perfection, copy and paste it into the funding source's online form.

Resolution #9

Become entirely self-sufficient. That means knowing where the paper is kept, how to unjam the copier, how to replace ink and toner, and yes, how to load the stapler! Be prepared to do everything yourself, with no help.

Resolution #10

Plan ahead!
